Our Mission

Lansing Roots, a program of the Greater Lansing Food Bank (GLFB), is designed to help beginning farmers from the Greater-Lansing area begin successful market gardening and farming enterprises through an incubator farm setting. Through the CSA program we strive to: 1. Promote Health & Wellness 2. Support Local & Underserved Farmers 3. Improve Food Security 4. Create Innovative Food Systems 5. Stimulate the Local Economy 6. Build Community and Connection.

Our Commitment to You

Lansing Roots commits to responsible and sustainable production of all crops and that all crops meet our high quality standards for freshness and healthiness. We commit to provide you with an assortment of different items of produce for 20 weeks beginning in mid-June and ending in late-October. We also commit to effective and timely communication throughout the entire year. As a valued CSA subscriber, we will always listen to your feedback and take it into consideration to better improve, evaluate and expand upon our mission. Just as you agree to share our risks with us, we also agree to share the benefits of a successful season with you.

Your Commitment to the Lansing Roots Multi-Grower CSA

I understand that due to circumstances of weather and other uncontrollable factors associated with crop production, the nature of a CSA may at times be unpredictable and that the distribution of crops will vary. Regardless of this inherent factor of farming, I understand that I may receive more or less of any individual crop during the course of the season. I agree to pay the full amount of the share and will submit my payments on time. I will pick up my produce from the distribution site each week or will call by the designated time or arrange for someone else to pick up my share if I am not able to pick it up; if I do not, my share will be donated.

If I choose to split my share with someone, I admit to the responsibility of acting as the primary member and to effectively communicating to the Lansing Roots staff regarding my subscription.

By signing I commit to the statements written above.
